Property Description

Offering interest rate buy down or closing cost credit through preferred lender!

An impressive residence in Poinciana offering the space, flexibility, and distinctive features that are increasingly hard to find. One of the larger homes currently available in the community, this property is situated on a generous corner lot and provides an exceptional amount of living and storage space ideal for a growing household, multi-generational living, entertaining, or simply anyone who wants room to spread out.

From the moment you arrive, the home makes a statement with its expansive multi-car paver driveway, providing plenty of parking for residents and guests...
